

Combustion of Flooring Sanding Dust

Cured Miraphen UV Lacquers are combinations of inorganic mineral fillers (Talc, Silica) with organic acrylic plastics.

Combustion of sanding dust of wood, coated with Miraphen UV Lacquers under reasonable conditions (enough oxygen), will mainly form the same compounds as combustion of sanding dust of untreated wood.

The mineral fillers will remain unchanged; the other lacquer compounds can form carbon dioxide, water and small amounts of nitrogen oxides.

01st July 2008
Friedrich Klumpp GmbH,

W. Sauerborn

Wilhelm Sauerborn
Head of Research and Development